Dear Families and Students:

Your student at Holmen High School is scheduled to engage in the state-mandated Dynamic Learning Maps (DLM) assessment on Wednesday, March 19th, concurrently with other students participating in the ACT or Pre-ACT Secure on the same date. The DLM evaluates students in the subjects of English, Reading, Math, and Science. If you have chosen to exempt (opt out) your child from taking this assessment, please note that your child will not be attending school on this day, as our entire staff will be dedicated to administering the DLM, ACT, and Pre-ACT Secure assessment to each appropriate student group.

Why take the DLM?

- Data will be used to help make future Academic and Instructional decisions
- It is mandated by the state of Wisconsin
- It assesses student knowledge and academic progress

Preparation

- Get a Good Night Sleep
- Have Breakfast

Testing Dates

- Wednesday, March 19th (transportation services will run as normal at the end of the day)
- Please do everything in your control to make sure your student is present

Sincerely,

Wayne E. Sackett
