JANUARY 2024 . VOLUME 14

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

Happy New Year to you and your family! Although December was short, the month was jam packed! The students learned about many different holiday things and enjoyed creating projects to show their learning. Check out our Facebook page for pictures.

Thank you all so much again for taking the time to come to our Blanket Making Night in December. The students couldn't stop talking about it for weeks afterward and are looking forward to more family engagement nights like that soon. All blankets have been donated and the recipients are all very appreciative.

The first few weeks of January will be ACCESS testing. Just a reminder to make sure your child(ren) go to bed early and eat breakfast every morning. Good luck to our kiddos!

In honor of our friend, Osuke and his culture, we will focus on the Japanese New Year for the rest of January.

Love, Ms. Yang
